NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.
NEW YORK, April 22.—The New York operators in securities got down to Wall Street this morning they found a somewhat feverish activity in the speculation in American stocks with a tendency to rebound from yesterday's depression. Cabled inquiries from the outside indicated an eager anticipation of the market, but the Wall Street would take a very sufficient to admonish the bears who sold yesterday afternoon's slump to cover their contracts. The covering of the shorts was reflected in the buying for London account. The result was very sharp advances all around. There was only a slight reaction at the close.
The market was highly speculative all day. In the railroad market, speculators and the international led in the trading. The conditions to the world's money markets had a salient effect on the security market, although rates for time money and commercial paper remained firm, call money was to be had on the exchange at 2 per cent.
The resultant effect of the London market from the pressure for gold accompanying a rise in Berlin exchange on London, gave promise of easier money there and relieved the situation in Paris as well. The result was a cessation of the heavy liquidation for Paris account. The selling of American securities which had been large for both Paris and London account, was checked. These improved
